

Farmers in Georgia start planting watermelons in March. After about 80 days the watermelons are ready to be harvested. Did you know that Cordele, Georgia is known as the Watermelon Capital of the world?