

Each year people visit Christmas tree farms to find the perfect tree for their house. It takes 6-8 years before the tree is tall enough to be cut down. For every Christmas tree harvested, 1-3 seedlings are planted. There are around 350 million Christmas trees growing in the United States, some of those are here in Georgia!