

Tomatoes should be planted in full sun after the threat of frost has passed. There are over 4,000 varieties of tomatoes and they come in an incredible range of sizes, shapes, colors, and maturity dates. They can be harvested from mid-May through mid-November. Visit a lawn and garden store near you and select tomato plants or seeds to plant at your house!