

FARM BUREAU GEORGIA

HERB FACTS

Herbs like basil, rosemary, thyme, and parsley grow really well in Georgia's warm weather and sunshine. You can plant them in the ground, in garden beds, or in pots on a porch or windowsill. People use herbs to add flavor to food, make tea, and enjoy their fresh smells. Some herbs in Georgia can grow almost all year long!

FARM BUREAU GEORGIA

HERB FACTS

Herbs like basil, rosemary, thyme, and parsley grow really well in Georgia's warm weather and sunshine. You can plant them in the ground, in garden beds, or in pots on a porch or windowsill. People use herbs to add flavor to food, make tea, and enjoy their fresh smells. Some herbs in Georgia can grow almost all year long!

FARM BUREAU GEORGIA

HERB FACTS

Herbs like basil, rosemary, thyme, and parsley grow really well in Georgia's warm weather and sunshine. You can plant them in the ground, in garden beds, or in pots on a porch or windowsill. People use herbs to add flavor to food, make tea, and enjoy their fresh smells. Some herbs in Georgia can grow almost all year long!

FARM BUREAU GEORGIA

HERB FACTS

Herbs like basil, rosemary, thyme, and parsley grow really well in Georgia's warm weather and sunshine. You can plant them in the ground, in garden beds, or in pots on a porch or windowsill. People use herbs to add flavor to food, make tea, and enjoy their fresh smells. Some herbs in Georgia can grow almost all year long!