

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

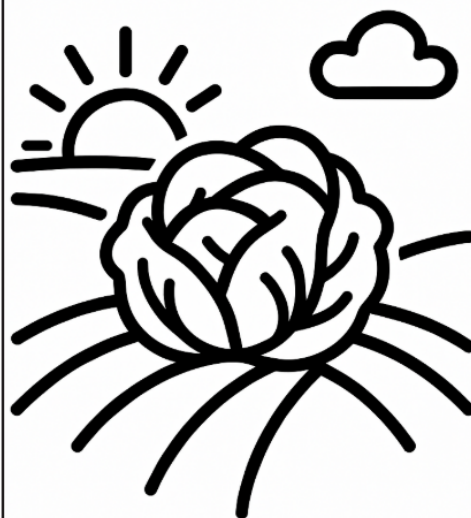

CABBAGE FACTS

Cabbage is one of Georgia's cool-weather crops! Farmers plant it in fall or late winter, and it's ready to harvest in about 70 to 90 days. That's just a few months! Cabbage is crunchy, packed with vitamins, and used in yummy foods like coleslaw, stir-fry, and soups. Some even call it a super veggie!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

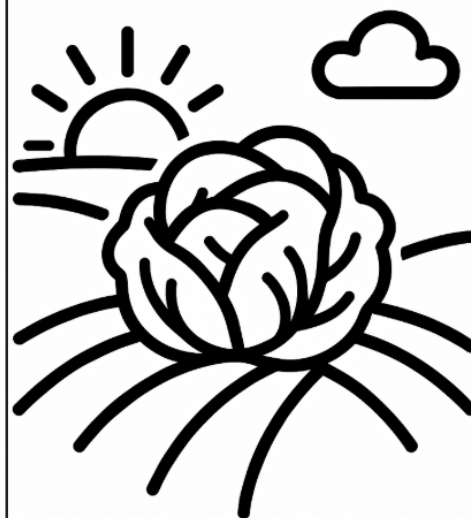

CABBAGE FACTS

Cabbage is one of Georgia's cool-weather crops! Farmers plant it in fall or late winter, and it's ready to harvest in about 70 to 90 days. That's just a few months! Cabbage is crunchy, packed with vitamins, and used in yummy foods like coleslaw, stir-fry, and soups. Some even call it a super veggie!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

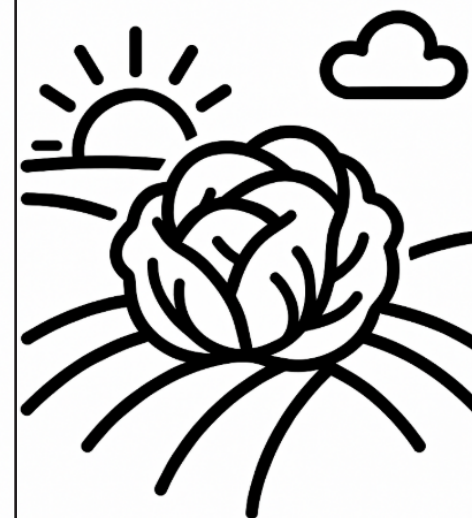

CABBAGE FACTS

Cabbage is one of Georgia's cool-weather crops! Farmers plant it in fall or late winter, and it's ready to harvest in about 70 to 90 days. That's just a few months! Cabbage is crunchy, packed with vitamins, and used in yummy foods like coleslaw, stir-fry, and soups. Some even call it a super veggie!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

CABBAGE FACTS

Cabbage is one of Georgia's cool-weather crops! Farmers plant it in fall or late winter, and it's ready to harvest in about 70 to 90 days. That's just a few months! Cabbage is crunchy, packed with vitamins, and used in yummy foods like coleslaw, stir-fry, and soups. Some even call it a super veggie!