

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

®

MUSCADINE FACTS

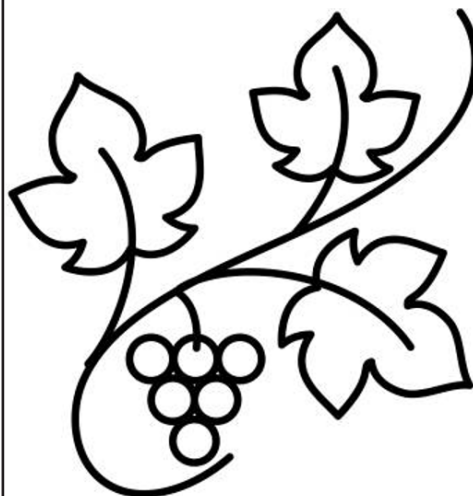

Muscadines are grapes that grow well in Georgia's warm weather. They can be purple, bronze, or green and have thick skins. Muscadines grow on vines and are picked in late summer and early fall. People in Georgia use them to make jelly, juice, and even ice cream!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

®

MUSCADINE FACTS

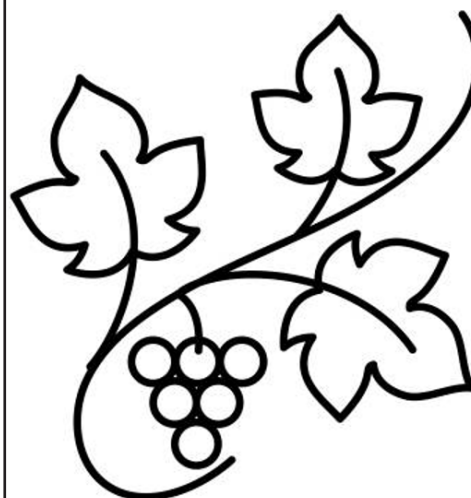

Muscadines are grapes that grow well in Georgia's warm weather. They can be purple, bronze, or green and have thick skins. Muscadines grow on vines and are picked in late summer and early fall. People in Georgia use them to make jelly, juice, and even ice cream!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

®

MUSCADINE FACTS

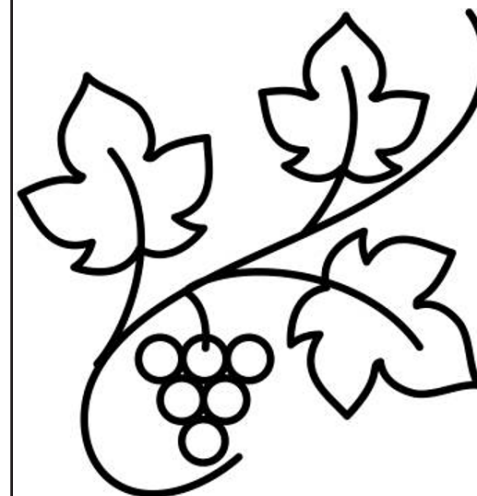

Muscadines are grapes that grow well in Georgia's warm weather. They can be purple, bronze, or green and have thick skins. Muscadines grow on vines and are picked in late summer and early fall. People in Georgia use them to make jelly, juice, and even ice cream!

FARM BUREAU
GEORGIA

®

MUSCADINE FACTS

Muscadines are grapes that grow well in Georgia's warm weather. They can be purple, bronze, or green and have thick skins. Muscadines grow on vines and are picked in late summer and early fall. People in Georgia use them to make jelly, juice, and even ice cream!