

PECAN FACTS

- Pecans are Georgia's Official State Nut.
- A pecan tree can bear edible nuts for over 300 years!
- Albany, Georgia is known as the Pecan Capital of the World." There are over 600,000 pecan trees there!
- There are more than 144,000 acres, (the size of a football field), of pecans planted in Georgia.

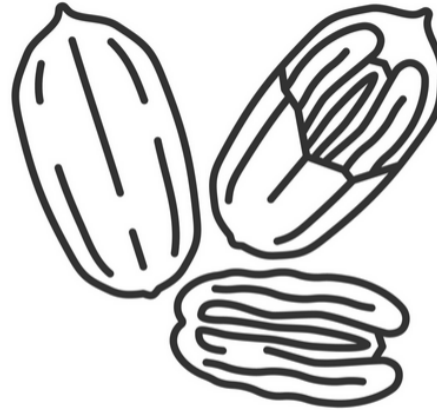

PECAN FACTS

- Pecans are Georgia's Official State Nut.
- A pecan tree can bear edible nuts for over 300 years!
- Albany, Georgia is known as the Pecan Capital of the World." There are over 600,000 pecan trees there!
- There are more than 144,000 acres, (the size of a football field), of pecans planted in Georgia.

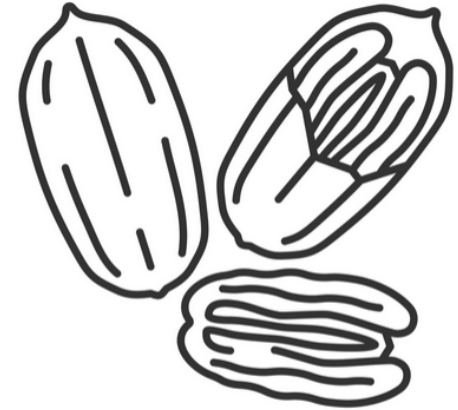

PECAN FACTS

- Pecans are Georgia's Official State Nut.
- A pecan tree can bear edible nuts for over 300 years!
- Albany, Georgia is known as the Pecan Capital of the World." There are over 600,000 pecan trees there!
- There are more than 144,000 acres, (the size of a football field), of pecans planted in Georgia.

PECAN FACTS

- Pecans are Georgia's Official State Nut.
- A pecan tree can bear edible nuts for over 300 years!
- Albany, Georgia is known as the Pecan Capital of the World." There are over 600,000 pecan trees there!
- There are more than 144,000 acres, (the size of a football field), of pecans planted in Georgia.