Georgia is the top chicken-producing state in the country. In fact, Gainesville, Georgia is known as the Poultry Capital of the World! Chickens are raised on farms all over the state. They give us meat and eggs. Every day, Georgia produces over 30 million pounds of chicken and more than 7 million eggs!