

Composting is a way to recycle things like fruit peels, leaves, eggshells, and paper. These items break down naturally and turn into rich soil called compost. Compost helps plants grow by adding nutrients to the dirt. Want to learn more? Visit gfb.ag/compost to get started at home!