

PECAN: GEORGIA'S OFFICIAL STATE NUT

Georgia has over 140,000 acres of pecan trees and is one of the top pecan-producing states in the country. (An acre is about the size of a football field!) Pecans are harvested in the fall, usually between September and November. The Albany area is known as the "Pecan Capital of the World" because it has more than 600,000 pecan trees!

