

Did you know that Ellijay, in Gilmer County, is known as the Apple Capital of Georgia? Apple season in Georgia lasts from mid-August to mid-October. More than 20 kinds of apples are grown across the state, and each one is picked at a different time during the season.