

Cotton is a big crop in Georgia! It grows on tall green plants with fluffy white cotton bolls. Cotton is planted in the spring and picked in the fall.

Georgia is one of the top cotton-growing states in the U.S. The cotton grown here is used to make clothes, towels, and even dollar bills. One bale of cotton can make about 1,200 T-shirts!