

Dairy cows in Georgia help make milk, cheese, butter, and ice cream! Most dairy cows in Georgia live on family farms and are milked two or three times a day. Each cow can give about 6 to 7 gallons of milk every day! Georgia has over 200 dairy farms, and the most common dairy cow is the Holstein, known for its black-and-white spots.