

Georgia has several fish hatcheries run by the Department of Natural Resources! A fish hatchery is a special place where baby fish are hatched and cared for until they're ready to live in rivers, lakes, or ponds. Some fish are also raised on fish farms, called aquaculture, and are grown for food.

Fun fact: Did you know the official state fish of Georgia is the largemouth bass?