

Goats are raised on farms all across Georgia! They are fun animals that can give us milk, meat, and even fiber for making clothes. Goats are curious and love to climb and explore. Some Georgia farmers raise dairy goats to make cheese and soap, while others raise meat goats like Boer goats. Goats help keep pastures clean by eating weeds and brush.