

Hay is one of Georgia's top crops! It's made from grasses like supergrass and is mostly used to feed cows and other farm animals. Farmers in Georgia cut, dry, and roll the hay into big round or square bales. Hay is usually harvested from May through October and can be stored to feed animals all year long!