

Horticulture is the science and art of growing plants like flowers, fruits, and vegetables. In Georgia, farmers grow tasty crops like peaches, blueberries, and pecans, along with lots of beautiful flowers and plants. These plants are used for food, sold in nurseries, and planted around homes and parks to make our communities look nice. Horticulture helps grow the plants we eat, enjoy, and use to make our world more beautiful!