

Peas are a cool-weather crop that grow great in Georgia! There are three main kinds: English peas, snow peas, and sugar snap peas. In Georgia, peas are planted in early spring or late summer. Spring peas like full sun, while fall peas do better with a little shade. Peas grow in pods and are fun to pick and eat straight from the garden!