

Peanuts are one of Georgia's most famous crops! Georgia grows more peanuts than any other state. Peanuts grow underground and are planted in spring and harvested in fall. They're used to make peanut butter, snacks, and cooking oil. Peanut plants have yellow flowers, and the peanuts grow in shells under the soil. The peanut was named Georgia's official state row crop in 1995!