

Pork comes from pigs, and around 800 farmers in Georgia specialize in raising them. Pigs are smart animals that are raised for their meat, which we call pork. Pork is used to make tasty foods like bacon, sausage, ham, and pork chops. Farmers take good care of pigs by giving them healthy food, clean water, and a safe place to live.