

Pumpkins grow in Georgia during the summer and are ready to pick in the fall. They grow on vines and come in all shapes and sizes. Most Georgia pumpkins are used for fall decorations, but some are perfect for tasty treats like pie and bread. Pumpkin patches are a fun place to visit and pick your own pumpkin!