

Georgia is one of the top tomato-producing states in the country! Tomatoes grow best in full sun and should be planted after the last threat of frost. With over 4,000 varieties, tomatoes come in an amazing range of sizes, shapes, and colors. In Georgia, they can be harvested from mid-May through mid-November.