

Cucumbers grow well in Georgia's warm weather! They are usually planted in the spring and picked in early summer. Cucumbers grow on vines and need lots of sunshine and water. Some cucumbers are used for fresh eating, and others are used to make pickles! Georgia is one of the top cucumber-growing states in the U.S.