

Georgia is called the Peach State! Peaches grow on trees and are picked in the summer. They're sweet, juicy, and full of vitamins. Georgia peaches are used in jams, pies, and sold in stores. The peach became Georgia's official state fruit in 1995!