

There are 3 types of peas, English, Snow and Sugar Snap. For a spring crop peas should be planted between Valentine's Day and mid-March and the peas will need full sun for full production. For a fall crop peas should be planted in late August or early September and the peas will need partial shade (filtered sun all day or shade part of the day).