Christmas trees are grown and harvested in all 50 states.

Approximately 100,000 people are employed full or part-time in the Christmas tree industry.

In the United States, there are more than 15,000 Christmas tree farms.

There are approximately 350 million Christmas trees growing on U.S. farms.